Houston West Family Genealogy Society

See a book or two you like? Our library is now housed at the Westlake VFD Community Center at 19636 Saums Road! The cabinet with our library is just to the left of the main meeting room so you are welcome to browse the books whenever you attend a meeting or at your leisure. The Westlake Complex is open seven days a week from 7 AM to 9 PM. You do not need an appointment to visit the library--just let yourself in through the door down the hall past the bathrooms to minimize any disruption you might have if there is a meeting in progress.

Our library guidelines are that you keep the item you check out for a month and return so others may benefit from reading one of our precious resources.

NOTE: The Society's web address is www.houstonwestfamgen.org. You will find the latest listing of the Societies' library resources there.
